

Black Women for Wellness presents

Serious Business: Defining Agenda, Allies & Direction Securing Reproductive Justice for Black Women

Saturday

September 27, 2008

8:00 am - 4:30 pm

The Assistance League of Southern California

1370 N St Andrews Place

Los Angeles CA 90028

Agenda

8:00 Yoga Quickie

8:30 Registration Opens & Hollywood Breakfast

9:00 Opening Plenary

Decoding Racism - Its impact on Reproductive Health

Rev Daniel Buford - The People's Institute West

10:00 Quickie Break - Tai Chi with Pauline Brooks

10:15 Workshop Session 1 - Defining Agenda

These workshops define the reproductive health status of Black women...looking at the intersecting factors, social justice issues, statistics and trends of what, how and insights into why the reproductive health of African American women is at risk

Please Select One

Teen Sexuality Erika Seiver Gist, Jackie Provost, Jocelyn Bush

Adult Sexuality

Environmental Science Tyrone Hayes

International Selome Araya

11:15 Break

11:30 Workshop Session 2 - Defining Allies

These workshops sessions seek to broaden the definition of reproductive health into reproductive justice as well highlight allies, communities and movements with shared values and/or intersecting mission.

Please Select One

International

Environmental

Brothers

Womb 2 tomb

Name
Physical Address
City State Zip
E-mail Address
Website

Organization
Gender
Age Range under 20 21 - 35 36 +
Culture/Racial Identity

Special Needs:

Scholarship applicant: please attach statement

CHES CEU Volunteer/Community Service

Fee Enclosed:

Full Conference $ 100.00
Black Women for Wellness member: $75.00
Student $55.00
Bring A Brother Special (you + one brother) $75.00
Bring A Youth Special (you + one youth) $75.00
Group Rate - 5 or more 50% off
CHES Units - Free
CEU Units - $25 processing fee (must be engaged and present for entire convening)
Youth is defined as less than 21 years of age

Limited Number of Scholarships for students and financially challenged
Volunteer opportunities to support community service hours

Child Care - while children are welcome - this is adult conversation about reproductive health and sexuality - only if there is overwhelming demand will child care be provided - so speak up early and encourage friends with similar needs to do so promptly.

Black Women for Wellness disclaimer

Entries into our essay and/or prose application process for scholarship to Serious Business will become property of Black Women for Wellness.
Serious Business will be recorded (both audio and voice) for broadcast on our website, podcast and possible air on our radio program Some of Us Are Brave. Participants give consent with registration for broadcast.

Black Women for Wellness

P.O. Box 292516

Los Angeles CA 90029

www.bwwla.com www.bwwla.org

323 290 5955

www.myspace.com/bwwla